

The Indiana legislature, in my opinion, has made few positive statements. The "Do-not-call" law, in Indiana, is in stark contrast to everything else, in a very positive way. Our days and evenings are now free from unwanted calls. It is such a pleasant way of living that we know just what we have, here in Indiana, when we visit folks in other states. Please do NOTHING to weaken this law.